

“Wade In The Water”

1. Then _____ came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him.
2. John would have prevented him, saying, “I _____ to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?”
3. But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; for it is _____ for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented.
4. And when Jesus had been _____, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a _____ and alighting on him.
5. And a voice from heaven said, “This is my _____, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Be obedient to God just as Jesus showed obedience to God in allowing John to baptize him.

Each day is a new day, a new blank page, washed free of sin though the baptism of God’s forgiveness and grace.

God and Jesus gives me the gift of the power of the Holy Spirit each moment of each day.

Go and do—share God’s love with all armed with the power of the Holy Spirit.

Baptism for Christians is never meant to be a single event from the distant past. It is instead a daily source of identity, mission, and purpose. As we recall the baptism of Jesus and there encounter the depth of his love and humility, may we also faithfully live out our own baptismal promises by joining God in his mission in the world!

Challenge: Will I allow myself to be renewed daily by the gift of God’s baptism of love?
