

1. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to _____ may be proficient, equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

2. Indeed, the word of God is living and _____, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (Hebrews 4:12)

3. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a _____ to my path. I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to observe your righteous ordinances. (Psalm 119:105-106)

Matthew 22:37 Jesus replied, “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the first and _____ commandment.

We grow in our love for God when we come alongside God through a daily time in God’s Word and prayer.

How would you rate your success in spending time with God in the Word and prayer?

_____ I’m not very motivated to maintain a daily appointment.

_____ I’m motivated but struggle with consistency.

_____ I’m consistent, but it’s become routine rather than a joy.

_____ I’m motivated and regularly spend time with God.

What are some of your biggest barriers in spending time with God?

SOAP Method of Journaling from Wayne Cordeiro

S for Scripture: Select scripture to read.

O for Observation: Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you.

A for Application: Personalize what you have read, by asking yourself how it applies to your life right now.

P for Prayer: This can be as simple as asking God to help you use this scripture, or it may be a greater insight on what God may be revealing to you.
